PRESS RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LUBA Workers' Comp Named One of the Best Places to Work in Baton Rouge

Baton Rouge, La. (October 4, 2016) – LUBA Workers' Comp, a regional casualty insurance company, was named one of the 2016 Best Places to Work in Baton Rouge. The awards program recognizes the best places of employment in Baton Rouge by grading companies on their corporate culture, communications, work environment, pay and benefits program, and overall employee engagement and satisfaction. LUBA was the only casualty insurance company that received this award.

"I can't tell you how many visitors have toured our offices and come away saying that they felt a sense of family in our building. That's something that you can't simply create, it takes a staff of dedicated employees who truly care about one another," said David Bondy, Chief Executive Officer at LUBA. "I am thankful that I get to work alongside these special people."

In addition to employee benefits and professional development opportunities, LUBA fosters its company culture by providing a paid day off to each employee on their birthday, annual crawfish boils and Christmas parties to reinforce its family-like atmosphere, and chair massages and fruit stocked breakrooms to promote health and wellness.

This year the awards were presented by the Greater Baton Rouge Business Report, the Society for Human Resource Management, and Best Companies Group. The applicants were reviewed based on a two-step process. The first step examined the company's policies, practices, benefits, and demographics. The second step, an Employee Satisfaction Questionnaire, surveyed employees in-depth by asking open-ended questions.
